Chapter 11 Case number 08-13555 (JPM)
(Jointly Administered)

I am responding to the notice of hearing on the three hundred forty-second omnibus objection to the claims (employee-related claims). I am a pro se claimant. I reassert my claim for damages. I was issued this stock as a component of my compensation. Over the years, I had to pay ordinary income taxes on the original cost basis. I am out of pocket not only the losses on the shares but also the tax expense.

The debtor was a fiduciary of the corporation and they breached their fiduciary obligation by the fraudulent and complete mismanagement of the company. It is my understanding that general equity holders have received some form of compensation, yet employees who worked in good faith and have suffered damages have not. I object and find it unacceptable that the debtor should be exonerated from their fiduciary obligations.
